WCEJS Newsletter 11 December 2020

COVID Update

Thank you for your support regarding the switch to remote learning next Friday. We fully understand that this is short notice – we would all have greatly appreciated much more notice from the DfE. Further information about learning provision for Friday 18 December, and PHE tracing during the 6 days after the end of term, will be sent to you early next week.

Attached to this email is a copy of the counties 'COVID – a quick guide for parents.' Please download or print this. The advice is very clear and will help us to keep our school community safe.

Christmas Curriculum

The Year 4 children greatly enjoyed watching the recording of the Year 3 Nativity this week. The links to the recordings will be with Year 3 parents shortly.

Next week, we have four theatre performances to look forward to. These will be performed to year group bubbles who will be distanced in the school hall. The hall will be ventilated and children may wear a mask if they wish. Additionally, we have our Christmas Mufti day on Thursday (donations to the PTA); children do not have to wear Christmas jumpers.

PTA Christmas Hamper

Thank you for all the generous donations for the Christmas hampers, the draw for winners will take place next week.
