Values

We have focused on emotional intelligence again this week. In particular, we thought about three bible stories and how Joseph, Jesus and David might have responded if they had let their reptilian brain take control. Joseph might have sought revenge on his brothers. Jesus might have cowered from the storm instead of calming it and saving his disciples. David could have run away from the challenge of fighting the mighty goliath. We asked God to be with us and to talk to us when we face difficult times in our lives.

Head Lice

Please remember to check your child's hair regularly (boys and girls, short and long) and treat as necessary.
