

What sort of school
do we want?

A school where
people help and
encourage me...

or

a school where
people just
criticise and put
me down.

A school that is forgiving and
supportive...

or

a school that just punishes me for
my mistakes.

A school that listens to me and tries to understand...

or

a school that just
shouts at me
when I get things
wrong.

A school that allows me to
make choices...

or

a school that just
tells me what to
do.

This allows us
choice, but we need to think
ahead and make
good choices.

Thinking ahead just means:

“ If I choose to do this, what is likely to happen?”

If you are rude to someone...

you are saying it is ok
for people to be rude to
you.

If you are always criticising others...

you are saying it is ok
for people to always criticise you.

If you talk about
people...

you are saying it is ok
for people to talk about
you.

What would you do if...

someone called you a
name?

What would you do if...

someone was leaving
you out?

What would you do if...

you didn't agree with how someone was
doing something?

James 1:9

“So whoever knows the right thing to do and fails to do it, for him is a sin...”

What do you think this means?

"Be the change
you wish
to see
in the world."

~Mahatma Gandhi

How will our values help us make the right choices?

Dear Lord,

We thank you for allowing us choice. We know that with choice, comes responsibility. Help us to think ahead and make the right choice, especially when this is hard to do.

Amen
