

BUCKS CHILDREN'S WRITING CONTEST

Write a 200 word story about someone or something receiving help - this could be a person, an animal, or even an alien!

Send your story, along with a completed permission form and a £1 entry fee to your school office by Friday 7th December.

Local author and head judge Nicholas Halliday

Stories will be judged by local teachers and A level students, along with author Nicholas Halliday. Winners will be invited to an awards ceremony where they will meet Nicholas and receive their prize.
