The SENDCo and the SEND Team

The SENDCo is Mrs Jenny Bartlett. I am also one of the school's two Assistant Headteachers, and the Designated Safeguarding Lead.

I am not based in a class or year group, and work with children and staff across the whole school. I co-ordinate the provision of SEND support across the school.

I am supported by a team of three Lead Learning Support Assistants (Lead LSAs) and a number of Learning Support Assistants (LSAs) – some full-time, some part-time.

We send this newsletter out twice a term to all parents. It is also available on the school website for all parents.

Contact me at: admin@wendoverjunior.co.uk

News from the SENDCo

Dear Parents and Carers,

I hope you have all had a good start to 2026. After Christmas, it can sometimes be challenging to find the energy to refocus, and get back into routines. We have been supporting the children to do so, and to have a positive start to the term and the new year.

The charity transformingautism.org is offering a free 11 week online programme to support parents of Autistic children aged 0-12 years, as well as a 12 week support programme for children under 4 who are showing signs of autism. Learn more about it by clicking the link above.

I am delighted to share the news that our school library will soon be fully operational, with books available to borrow to read in the classroom and take home. The library is now open every lunch time, and many children have already been making the most of the opportunity to come in and read in a calm, quiet space.

The next SEND Newsletter will go out in March/April 2026.

Mrs Bartlett, SENDCo
admin@wendoverjunior.co.uk

Lunchtimes

Lunchtime is from 12:15 to 1:05. Year 3 and 4 go into the lunch hall first, and then stay there until 12:35, when they go out to play. Year 5 and 6 go out to play first, and then come in to eat at 12:40, staying until just before 1:00. Children who have clubs can eat early, so that they can attend their club.

Quiet lunch

- Children who find the lunch hall overwhelming can attend Quiet Lunch Club, which is held between 12:15 and 12:40 in South End Shared Area. They can bring one friend.

Things to do...

- Children have a choice of activities for the 20 minutes of free time that they are not eating. They can go out to play, attend a club, or do a combination of both.
- The Library is open for quiet reading every lunchtime, from either 12:15 or 12:30 (a timetable is displayed on the door). On 12:30 opening days, the library is not open to Years 5 and 6.

Reader pens: support for dyslexic children

We have joined a pilot scheme with Buckinghamshire Local Authority to trial using reader pens (sometimes known as scanning pens). Reader pens help children to process text more quickly than they can perhaps read it, by reading it out loud. They can also suggest spellings.

The pilot scheme is free.

The trial starts this month, and we are offering a couple of pens to children for evaluation. If the scheme is a success, we may be able to purchase the pens.

Please get in touch if you think your child would find this helpful.

Confident Autism Parenting

The charity transformingautism.org is offering a free 11 week online programme to support parents of Autistic children aged 0-12 years.

Click on the QR code on this flyer for more details or look at the website for transformingautism.org.

There is also support available for children under 4 who are showing early signs of autism.

See the next slide for the flyer.

The flyer is titled "Confident Autism Parenting" and features a background image of a child's hands playing with colorful stacking rings. It includes a QR code in the top left corner with the text "Learn more and register" below it. In the top right corner, it says "Register now: transformingautism.org.uk". The main title is in a large, bold, white font on a dark blue background. Below the title, it states "A free 11 week online programme to support parents of Autistic children aged 0-12 year." The flyer is divided into two main sections: "How does it work?" and "What you'll gain:". The "How does it work?" section describes the program as a small group of parents (max 10) for weekly 75-minute sessions led by expert therapists, providing practical tools and support for challenges like: Behaviour, Sleep, Social interaction, Family relationships, Sensory needs, Play & eating, and Understanding early signs of autism. It also mentions that sessions are tailored to each group and that parents can learn from expert therapists and each other, trying strategies at home and sharing experiences week to week. The "What you'll gain:" section lists benefits: Closer connection with your child, More confidence as a parent, Tools to support your child's needs, and A calmer, more secure environment at home. Below this, it asks "Who can join?" and states that parents/carers of children (diagnosed or showing traits) aged 0-12 across the UK can join for free, with donations welcome if they are able. At the bottom right, there is a small image of a child in a yellow hoodie playing with a dog. The footer includes a small logo and the text "Contact us: info@transformingautism.org" and social media icons for Facebook and Twitter.

Bluebirds

You may wonder why there are Bluebirds all over this newsletter!

When we re-launched our SEND Room, the children chose the name for it, via the School Council: The Bluebird Room. We use the Bluebird Room for group sessions (e.g. Young Carers), and for emotional regulation.

All classrooms also have a Bluebird Box, which contains lots of equipment that children with SEND may find useful. For example, sensory tools, overlays, reading slopes, wobble cushions – and many more.

The Bluebird Boxes are an excellent toolkit of resources for teachers and LSAs to draw from to support children.

If you click on the Bluebird, it will take you back to the contents page.

Lead LSAs and cover teaching

We are fortunate to have three Lead LSAs (Lead Learning Support Assistants) in this school, who all take a significant role in the provision of support to our children. For example, the LLSAs lead the delivery of a range of individual and group interventions.

However, as part of their role, Lead LSAs also cover lessons for absent teachers, often at very short notice. This means that, sometimes, it is not possible for them to carry out their other duties. Please bear with us on these occasions; we always try to catch up as quickly as we can.

The Buckinghamshire Local Offer

Buckinghamshire Council has a useful web page which not only sets out their local offer of support, but also contains links to many useful organisations and sources of support.

There is general advice, as well as specific suggestions for support.

You could check out the Autism Toolbox for parents and carers or the services offered by Bucks SENDIAS, who provide free, confidential, impartial information, advice and support relating to SEND.

The screenshot shows the Buckinghamshire Council Family Information Service website. The header includes the council logo, the text 'Family Information Service', and a search bar. Below the header is a 'Home' link. The main heading is 'Special educational needs and disabilities (SEND Local Offer)'. There are six content boxes arranged in a 2x3 grid. Each box has a header image, a title, and a brief description. The first row includes 'Get started with SEND', 'About the SEND local offer', and 'Education and SEND'. The second row includes 'SEND money and benefits', 'Health and SEND', and 'Social care and SEND'.

SEND Information Report and the SEND Policy

All schools are required to share an annual SEND Information Report and their SEND Policy with parents. Ours is on this page. We update the SEND Information Report each year, and consult with parents. Do let us know if anything is unclear, or if you have any questions.

The screenshot shows the school's website with a header image of the school building and a red shield logo with a black cross. The navigation menu includes Home, About Us, Key Information, Safeguarding, Curriculum, and Parents. The main content area is divided into two columns: 'Key Information' and 'Special Educational Needs'. The 'Key Information' column lists Admissions, School Development, GDPR, Special Educational Needs (highlighted), Service Child Support in school, Performance Information, Ofsted and SIAMS, Pupil Premium Information, Sports Premium Funding, and Music Development Plan. The 'Special Educational Needs' column features a profile for Mrs Jenny Bartlett, Inclusion Manager, with her email address, and two links for 'WCEJS SEND INFO REPORT 2025' and 'SEND Policy', each accompanied by a PDF icon.

Service Support (RAF)

Mrs Ria Austin is our Service Support Assistant. In addition to her work in classrooms, she works 1:1 with all RAF children, increasing support around times of difficulty, e.g. deployment, and social and emotional issues.

She also runs regular lunches for groups of service children and their friends, as well as other events, e.g. the Year 6 wellbeing course, Little Troopers events, and craft sessions, where children make items to send to family members whom they don't see very often.

Parents are invited to a half-termly informal meeting with Mrs Austin.

Do come along and meet some new faces.

SENDCo Parent Meetings

We offer a termly meeting with the SENDCo, in addition to the termly meeting with the class teacher.

We offer time slots at SEND meetings via the same system that you use to book Parents' Evening Consultations. You are able to choose your own time slots.

Please contact the School Office on admin@wendoverjunior.co.uk to make a booking.

SEND Support Plans

All children with SEND support or EHCPs have an individualised SEND Support Plan. The plans describe the support offered to the children. These are issued and reviewed termly.

SEND Support Plans are live documents, and often change as the children's needs change.

A draft version is sent home near the start of term, and a reviewed version is sent home at the end of term.

At the end of the term, we also send home a SEND Review Report, which summarises the support given for the whole term and includes other information, e.g. the child's views.

Examples of the format of the SEND Support Plan and the SEND Review Report are on the following pages.

Long Term Outcomes for Child or Young Person

These aspirational SMART (specific, measurable, achievable, realistic, time bound) outcomes will be for the current or next Key Stage and must be related to the child or young person's area of needs. We would recommend between three and five outcomes.

Short term outcomes will be directly linked to the agreed medium-term outcomes identified above. These should summarise the outcomes that you have been working on over each cycle of APDR or those advised by other professionals – don't forget to include a review. It is advised that each cycle be reviewed at least termly and a new plan produced annually.

PIVATS – This is a way of measuring small steps of progress. At the start of term, we look at the skills that children have already achieved in that area, which gives us a numbered level. We then identify a target or several targets, which will often link to an intervention or targeted activities. At the end of the term, we look at the new skills that children have achieved to assess their new level.

How we support children with SEND

We aim to support children in classrooms as much as possible, so that they benefit from contact with the teacher and the other children. Therefore, we only take children out of class for a small range of interventions or support activities. We choose these interventions very carefully. You might find that your child comes out of class for one or more of the following:

- Nessy – a computer package that teaches / practises phonics skills for reading and spelling. Several times a week. 1:1 per computer, but may be carried out in a group
- 1:1 reading with an adult – frequent reading practice with an adult to build confidence and fluency
- Language Link - weekly small-group sessions of focused language activities
- Pre-teach vocabulary – a small group who learn vocabulary before the rest of the class, and work on meanings and spellings
- A social skills group or activity – a group of children who focus on a particular skill
- The Zones of regulation – 1:1 or small-group work on understanding and managing feelings
- Sensory circuits – a regular sequence of activities – alerting, organising and calming – that help children to feel ready to learn.

Note that not all of these interventions will run every term.

Therapy dogs

We are fortunate to be supported by two Therapy Dog teams, and we all love seeing Ruby, Bear and Pippin around the school.

Therapy dogs and their owners are specially trained to work with children. Many children respond very positively to dogs, and can be more relaxed around them than with people. This means that they can make progress in terms of emotional regulation, confidence and self-esteem.

If you think your child would benefit from spending some time with Pippin, please let me know. There is already a waiting list.

Sensory resources

Some children find sensory resources useful in class. We supply a range of sensory tools via the classroom Bluebird Boxes. This includes 'fidget toys' and wobble cushions.

Fidget toys (or sensory tools) are small objects designed to provide sensory input and encourage movement, mainly for improved focus, stress relief and enhanced fine motor skills. They are especially popular for children with ADHD, autism and other conditions that involve sensory processing difficulties.

Wobble cushions are used to improve balance, posture, and core strength, and can also help with sensory seeking and fidgeting.

Please let me or your child's class teacher know if you think your child needs this kind of support, and we will offer an appropriate resource. Please do not send your child in with any fidget toys or other sensory resources without checking with us first.

The next slide explains our classroom Fidget Rules.

Pastoral Support and Wellbeing

As of September 2025, our pastoral support arrangements are:

- Miss Clare Doman will support children who are experiencing issues with Emotionally-Based School Non-Attendance, and those on Behaviour Support Plans.
- Mrs Emma Salmon will offer wellbeing sessions for children in difficult circumstances.
- Mrs Ria Austin and Mrs Emma Salmon will support Young Carers.

Play Therapy

We are very fortunate to have the services of a Play Therapist in school.

Mrs Maria Guerrero is a Certified Play Therapist, who is qualified to work with children who are finding life difficult, or who have had challenging lived experiences.

Play Therapy does not teach children how to play; rather, it enables children to communicate through play, and to explore their feelings in a safe space.

Play therapy usually lasts for 12 sessions.

There is a waiting list.

Please contact the SENDCo if you think your child would benefit from this support.

Meet the SEND Team – events coming soon

We regularly hold Meet the SEND Team events. The next ones are:

- 9:00 on Wednesday 18 March 2026
- 9:00 on Thursday 23 April 2026
- 9:00 on Thursday 16 July 2026

The Meet the SEND Team events are an informal chat with SEND team staff, including the RAF Service Support Assistant. Where possible, the SENDCo or other members of the team will support parents with individual queries.

Please let us know if you would like to attend this event; send an email to: admin@wendoverjunior.co.uk.

The event lasts for about half an hour. Tea, coffee and biscuits are provided.
